From: Hector Berardi
Vice President of Operations

Subject: End of Life Policy

Dear Valued PLX Customer:

This letter is to outline PLX Technology's end of life policy.

In general, PLX products enjoy exceptionally long product cycles. Occasionally, however, PLX must cease production of a given product. In these rare cases, PLX will issue a formal notification informing you of our intent. Our policy is to give you twelve months from our notification to place any last time buys or make any other arrangements.

In addition, whenever possible, PLX is committed to assisting you in identifying replacement devices.

PLX is honored to supply you with quality solutions and we look forward to assisting you in meeting your interconnect needs.

Sincerely,
Hector Berardi
Vice President, Operations
